 1.e4 c5 2.Nf3 Nc6 3.Bb5, the Rossolimo has won quite a few famous games for White too, and thus is another Anti-Sicilian to be taken very seriously. The most fashionable answer for Black is 3...e6, while the older mainline 3...g6 is in some difficulties atm I think and 3...Nf6 is much better than its reputation.

 The Sicilian Defense is the most common response to 1. e4. By advancing the c-pawn at the first move, Black creates an asymmetry in the pawn structure. This leads to an imbalanced position that gives Black higher chances to win. Besides this, the move 1 ... c5 controls the important d4-square.

Sicilian Defense (How To Play It, Attack It, And Counter It)
 The Sicilian Defence is a chess opening that begins with the following moves: 1. e4 c5 The Sicilian is the most popular and best-scoring response to White's first move 1.e4. Opening 1.d4 is a statistically more successful opening for White because of the high success rate of the Sicilian defence against 1.e4.

 As all Lakdawala books the move by move method is very good for the club player. The book is about practically all the main lines that are played against the Sicilian defence. A very good book if you play the Sicilian and do not want to get lost in multiple variations as in other more complicated books about the subject.
