Make your bee hotel. We've come up with a simple design for you to try, but if you are nifty with carpentry, feel free to make your own. For our version, buy a plank of timber (with the FSC logo, which means it comes from a sustainable source) about 1.5 cm thick and cut into the shapes shown to make a box with three compartments. Nail it together.

Building your bee hotel: Cut the plank into four to make a rectangular frame that the stems will sit inside. Drill guide holes for the screws (to stop the wood splitting) and assemble the frame. Snip your stems into lengths to fit the frame (as wide as the plank), discarding any bent or knobby ones.

A bed and breakfast is a something of a mix between a boutique hotel and a private home. Usually, the service is extremely personal. The manager might live on-site, and it's not unusual that the manager and the guests spend time together. Before you even think about opening a bed and breakfast, you need to plan ahead.
