Cats the Musical - Memory Lyrics JEMIMA: Daylight See the dew on a sunflower And a rose that is fading Roses wither away Like the sunflower I yearn to turn my face to the dawn I am waiting for the day MUNKUSTRAP (spoken): Now old Deuteronomy Just before dawn Through a silence you feel you could cut with a knife Announces the cat who can now be reborn

Cats - Memory Lyrics

She is smiling alone In the lamplight, the withered leaves collect at my feet And the wind begins to moan Memory All alone in the moonlight I can smile at the old days I was beautiful then I remember the time I knew what happiness was Let the memory live again Every streetlamp seems to beat a fatalistic warning Someone mutters, and a streetlamp gutters, And soon it will be morning. Daylight I must wait for the sunrise And I mustn't give in.

Memory [From Cats] Lyrics

Memory, all alone in the moonlight. I can dream of the old days. Life was beautiful then. I remember the time I knew what happiness was. Let the memory live again. Every street lamp seems to beat. A fatalistic warning. Someone mutters and the street lamp sputters. Soon it will be morning.

Memory Lyrics

" Memory " is a show tune composed by Andrew Lloyd Webber, with lyrics by Trevor Nunn based on a poem by T. S. Eliot. It was written for the 1981 musical Cats, where it is sung primarily by the character Grizabella as a melancholic remembrance of her glamorous past and as a plea for acceptance.
