DIRT, by David Vann, made me want to take a shower and an antidepressant. And I'm not a depressive. I needed to wash it off and purge it from my system, physically and mentally. For me, it was difficult to get through and to be done with.

Dirt by David Vann - Goodreads

New Statesman Best Books of the Year 2012. " By far the most intense experience I had as a reader this year was with David Vann ' s Dirt. Words and ideas seem almost dangerous in his hands and yet his work is full of heart. For me that ' s probably the definition of perfection in fiction. " Trouw (Netherlands) Best Books of the Year 2012

Dirt | Author David Vann

David Vann is vastly underrated. His characters may not be people you would like to be, but they ultimately remind you of yourself. The writing in Dirt is clever. Vann asks you to starve yourself and stare into the sun.
