I'm sorry sir, but my memories of the flight home (freedom bird) are like they happened yesterday. I remember as a blue navy returnee that I came home after 5 days in Saigon with 4 of my shipmates and about 100 Marines that had recently seen heavy combat. All the stews were constantly proposed to and I guess it was the best flight of my life before and since. We landed in San Fran. with all the ...

Flying For Freedom (FFF) is a UK wide flying based endeavour, providing opportunities to spend a morning or afternoon flying various legs of a challenge in a microlight. In 2015, FFF pilots flew clockwise around the UK, setting off from Kemble on 6th June, flying nearly 2000 miles in multiple legs and reaching their start point again on 16th June. The endeavour involved flying six flexwing microlights, all piloted by disabled pilots, around the UK, landing for press calls at key locations ...
