Ellen Wittlinger: Hard Love

Hard Love is a beautiful, heartbreaking, thought-provoking love story between two teenagers. The biggest catch though, is that one of them is gay. John knows Marisol is gay because of the zines (self-produced magazines) she writes. Her zines are full of wit, sarcasm, and brutal honesty.

With a title like Hard Love, we expect a rough journey, and the book doesn't disappoint. Still, though, we're surprised when it hurts so much. We're sensitive souls around these parts, you know. Ellen Wittlinger's 1999 novel garnered the Printz Honor Award for excellence in Young Adult Literature for its tale of teenage angst and unrequited love.

Hard Love Introduction | Shmoop

By Ellen Wittlinger. Previous Next . Hard Love Summary. Meet high school junior John Galardi, Jr., a dude who's cynical to a fault, immune to emotion, and hates his parents. They got divorced when he was a kid and ever since, his mom has been depressed and won't touch him—no really, no contact—and his dad is even worse. The guy ran out on them and doesn't want a family, but takes him out ...
