We also know that God Himself is logical, based on His words and His actions. First and foremost, God acts in a logical way: He plans, communicates, discusses, and acts. God even speaks of “ reasoning ” with human beings (Isaiah 1:18). He distinguishes between truth and falsehood, a core aspect of basic logic (John 7:18).

How God Works: A Skeptic Questions
Belief by Marshall Brain

God is not logical because logic is for the finite and the fallible. It is a structure created and given by God so that beings with limited knowledge could solve problems and have a reasonable world. Logic is a framework for understanding created beings and their doings, but God is not created. He is not finite.
