National Insurance is paid by employers, as well as employees and self-employed workers. Once you reach state pension age, you don't need to pay it at all, which effectively reduces your tax bill. In some cases you may qualify for National Insurance credits, perhaps if you are earning a modest wage, or are acting as a carer.

exam whereas AQ2016 is 2.5 hours, beware if you have been relying on AQ2016 material. Everybody's study methods are different but I cannot stress enough do as many questions as you can, the same questions several times if you run out of questions, don't spend too much time on taking notes and reading your tutorials.
