John Lennon's Death Was Faked. The shooting of John Lennon in 1980 was staged, or at least he didn't immediately die. Or at least that's the premise that launches a hilarious work of fiction called "Life After Death (For Beginners)" by Michael Gerber, in which - among other things - Lennon tries to discover who killed him and whether it was for money or politics or love.

Invalid Email. An utterly bonkers conspiracy that Beatles frontman John Lennon faked his death and is still alive today has resurfaced on the 39th anniversary of his assassination. Today marks 39 years since the iconic singer was murdered by Mark David Chapman outside his Manhattan apartment in New York. But despite the overwhelming proof of his death, there are those online who bizarrely believe the official line of reports are wrong.
