Only in Pigeon Racing. At 57 years of age, I have been very fortunate in my life to be successfully involved in various competitive sports - HUMAN AND ANIMAL. Only in the pigeon sport have I ever heard of evaluating athletes by "EYE SIGN". I have never witnessed nor heard of coaches, owners, general managers or parents looking into the eyes of their players, young children or livestock with a "jeweler's loupe" to see if they were going to be a good performer, top breeder, sprinter

However, both maintain that the percentage of good racing pigeons can be increased substantially by breeding only with birds with the eye sign common to good breeders. Nevertheless, both fanciers also emphasize different aspects of the eye sign concept which does not make one right or wrong. One could look at the same eye, as I have done here, and see the attributes emphasized by various eye sign enthusiasts.

cash and the heads of many good pigeons. Firstly, if a so-called "eye sign" expert examines your pigeons' eyes and tells you which to cull, politely guide him off your property.

Pigeon racing: examine the eyes | Farmer's Weekly

The first thing we notice about a pigeon eye, even without optical aids, is the pupil. The pupil is nothing more than an opening in the coloured iris and the deep black is nothing more than a piece of the retina. Images are broken by the lens at the front of the eye and projected smaller onto the retina.

This is a quote from Silvere Toye when I asked him about eye sign in racing pigeons. “The pigeon’s eye is a reflection of the health also the vitality of the pigeon the older they get” Quite right but there is still a lot more to the subject. There are some fascinating photos of pigeon’s eye’s and they look incredible, but they are not worth a light, they are very misleading because they are manufactured.

use it in combination race your birds hard then pair what you have left by eye I would never let some one cull in my loft by eyesign another thing is, is the guy reading the sign an expert ( I am NOT ) or is he some hack that read a book !!!
