Hoffman's diary is an amazing insight into the attitude of ordinary German soldiers before and during the battle of Stalingrad. The entry was written at the end of July, a month before Stalingrad. Up to then, the German army had seen victory after victory and Hoffman felt confident they could conquer Stalingrad and then the rest of Russia.

This powerpoint has been put together using various sources online. It's important to note that this isn't representative of all Roman Soldiers, just one who would be marching. It has been designed so that a year 4 class could write a diary entry on a Roman's day. The low ability version is designed to be printed.

The Philippines. Ronin also took part in the Cagayan battles in 1582 in the Philippines. Fighting alongside Chinese and Filipino pirates, they were beaten by a Spanish force under Captain Juan Pablo de Carrión.. There was also a Japanese settlement in Manila, Dilao (now Paco), populated by "merchants, mercenaries, sailors, castaways, and survivors of shipwrecks" and dating to at least 1593.
