The Sound of Music is a musical with music by Richard Rodgers, lyrics by Oscar Hammerstein II, and a book by Howard Lindsay and Russel Crouse. It is based on the 1949 memoir of Maria von Trapp, The Story of the Trapp Family Singers. Set in Austria on the eve of the Anschluss in 1938, the musical tells the story of Maria, who takes a job as governess to a large family while she decides whether to become a nun.

The book opens with a young boy hearing a sound - a card catching on bicycle spokes. The author explains that the 'card moves back and forth very fast' and that both card and spokes are making a sound because they are vibrating. Turn the page and there's another sound, this time made by a cricket. 'Its wings vibrate. That's what ...
