I had decided to read ' Under the Mountain ' because during one of our English classes I had heard it was a good book to read, so I just borrowed it from the library. The category which I am going to fill the board with is the ' A book written by a New Zealander ' . I would only give the book a rating of 2-3 because some parts of the book I had found a bit boring. I thought the characters ...

With three very successful Kickstarters under their belt, the Esteren team has built up a reputable brand and can rely on a strong customer base to propel their projects along at this point. I don ' t foresee myself ever having time to actually play this RPG, but as an example of artistic design and deeply imaginative world-building, it has few contenders. In many ways it reminds me of the ...
