She was so beautiful that cabbies stopped to cry with her and kiss her hand when she told them she had cancer. Don't get me wrong, Geralyn is a survivor and her story isn't less than any other story of breast cancer. I was just hoping for an uplifting survivor story centered around your average woman.

Why I Wore Lipstick: To My Mastectomy by Geralyn Lucas

The idea behind the creation of lipstick was to emphasize sexuality by mimicking the color and shape of a woman's vagina. Ancient Egyptians reportedly wore lipstick to demonstrate social power, and before that, Ancient Sumerians crushed gemstones to adorn their faces while Cleopatra crushed bugs (yep) to achieve that effortless rouge we now buy in Target.
